

Information for Claiming Credit & Certificates

DO NOT DISCARD UNTIL DIRECTIONS HAVE BEEN COMPLETED

Directions:

To receive continuing education credit and/or certificate of attendance, a participant MUST:

Step 1: Check in with registration staff and sign in at conference.

Step 2: Complete an electronic evaluation.

- After the conference, you will receive a link to the evaluation. When finished evaluating you will be redirected to CCHMC's Cloud CME system to complete the attestation form.

Note: Credit is not issued until you see an electronic certificate with your name on it.

Important things to note:

- The evaluation period will close 1/5/2023
- Credit/certificates will not be available after this date.
- If you have not received the necessary links for the evaluations, please contact Walt Rice immediately at WaltRiceJr@gmail.com
- Even if you do not need credit, we still ask you to complete an evaluation!

All of the relevant financial relationships listed for these individuals have been mitigated. Remaining persons in control of content have no relevant financial relationships.

Commercial Support: none

Educational Gap: Unintentional injury continues to be the leading cause of pediatric death. Continued research, dissemination, and discussion among injury prevention teams and member sites regarding that best practice is vital to decreasing unintended injury among children and adolescents. This conference is held annually for Injury Free sites to learn from each other and share ideas to impact some of the leading causes of unintentional injury death in children. New research and programs are presented each year.

Objectives: Please see main conference page for a list of full objectives: <https://injuryfree.org/2022conference/>
